On May 12th 2016, the Amherst County School Board voted to close the doors to Pleasant View Elementary School. In June 2017 the school had its final day of classes. Now the School sits on Dancing Creek Road empty with no future plans.

The Amherst County Board of Supervisors is having a special meeting on August 22nd to discuss the future of the Pleasant View School building. As of right now the Pleasant View School building is not being used for anything. Amherst County is currently paying approximately $41,000 per year for utilities and maintenance. The board members want to hear from the public about what the building should be used for and get some insight on what the citizens of Amherst County want.

This special Board of Supervisors meeting will be held on Tuesday August 22nd at 7 pm at Pleasant View Elementary School in the Gymnasium.
