

September 25, 2:30 p.m.
AMHERST COUNTY LIVES THROUGH WWII

Florence and Holcomb Nixon of Elon will regale the audience with stories of happenings during World War II, sharing information about Amherst County and a few other places. You won't want to miss the encounter of the capture of German prisoners of war in the Elon area. The public is encouraged to join in the Sunday conversation and share their own family's Home Front memories, stories and memorabilia.

An Amherst County World War II exhibit in the Parlor of the Kearfott-Watts House will be open before and after the program.

No admission fee. Light refreshments will be served.

Amherst County Museum & Historical Society
154 South Main Street
P. O. Box 741
Amherst, Virginia 24521
www.amherstcountymuseum.org
staff@amherstcountymuseum.org
434-946-9068

Program made possible by The Greater Lynchburg Community Trust

Items in the ACMHS Collection