

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AMHERST COUNTY MUSEUM PRESENTS A TALK ON THE REVEREND ROBERT ROSE BY DICK WHITEHEAD

SUNDAY, MARCH 26, 2023 at 2:30 p.m.

Amherst – Dick Whitehead of the Historical Society of Nelson County will talk about the life of Parson Rose, who came to the Virginia Colony at the age of 21, just ordained in England. Preaching was his calling, but he developed other areas of expertise, such as surveying, inventing the double canoe for transporting tobacco, and medical treatments.

The program is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 26, 2023 and is free and open to the public. The Museum is located at 154 South Main Street in Amherst. Light refreshments will be served.

This program is co-sponsored by the Amherst County Museum & Historical Society and the Historical Society of Nelson County with support from the Town of Amherst.

The Amherst County Museum and Historical Society is a nonprofit educational organization whose mission is to discover, collect and preserve objects related to the history and genealogy of Amherst County. The society exhibits, interprets and offers its collections to provide educational experiences for people of all ages.

For additional information contact Octavia Starbuck, Director, Amherst County Museum and Historical Society at 434-946-9068 or by the website email: staff@amherstcountymuseum.org.

#

Octavia Starbuck
Director, 434-946-9068
Amherst County Museum & Historical Society
154 South Main Street
P. O. Box 741, Amherst, Virginia 24521