Water Tower Branding

Amherst County is pleased to announce that County branding has been placed on the Madison Heights water tower near Lyttleton Lane. The Amherst "A" and the County's slogan "A perfect slice of Virginia" have been added to the water tower in the southern part of Amherst County. Built in the 1950s, the tower is one of the original water towers built by the Service Authority. Placing the County's branding on the tower was a joint effort between the Economic Development Authority, the Amherst County Service Authority, and the Route 29 Business Beautification Committee.
