Board of Supervisors Thanks Local Businesses

The Amherst County Board of Supervisors adopted a commemorative resolution thanking local businesses for their donations of time and materials to construct a fire training facility or burn building.

Lynchburg Ready Mix Concrete Co., James River Equipment, Foster Electric Company Inc., and Hill Hardware Corporation donated valuable materials to the project. Amherst County Public Works Department, Amherst County Department of Public Safety, Amherst County Community Development, and Hurt & Proffitt, Inc. donated their time and expertise. Grants Hollow Land Management, Drummond Electrical Inc., CSE Incorporated, Bailess Trucking Inc., and LMT Hauling and Excavating donated time and materials to the project.

Supervisor Martin read the resolution, and representatives from many organizations were present to receive copies of the resolution.
