Haley Alger Joins County Staff as Administrative Assistant for Community Development

Amherst County would like to welcome Haley Alger to our staff. An Amherst native, Haley graduated from Amherst County High School.

As an Administrative Assistant, Haley's job includes assisting the public with the permitting process and with zoning and land-use inquiries. Other duties include managing records, assisting the Director of Community Development and the Assistant Planning and Zoning Administrator with administrative tasks, and providing general customer service. She brings five years of customer service and administrative experience to the job.
