

AMHERST COUNTY MUSEUM
AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

AMHERST GLEBE ARTS RESPONSE, INC.

Amherst County High School in the 1950s.

The Amherst County Museum and Historical Society and Amherst Glebe Arts Response, Inc.

PRESENT

FIRST PERSON INTERVIEWS, FILMS AND PERSONAL PERSPECTIVES:

“INTEGRATION IN AMHERST COUNTY SCHOOLS
FROM THE BLACK PERSPECTIVE DURING
THE 1960s AND 1970s”

2:30 p.m. Sunday, March 10, 2024

The Supervisors’ Room of the Amherst County & Administrators’ Building

(153 Washington Street; Amherst VA 24521)

Open to the public free of charge.

THE FILM: Amherst County Educational Experiences, “The Integration Period”

WE LIVED IT: Speakers Beverly Jones and Melodie Fletcher

WE DOCUMENTED IT: Lynn Kable

WHAT’S YOUR PERSPECTIVE: Questions and Stories from the Audience

PRESENTED WITH FUNDING ASSISTANCE FROM THE GREATER LYNCHBURG
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION TO AMHERST GLEBE ARTS RESPONSE AND THE AMHERST COUNTY MUSEUM AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY.