First Annual Amherst Outdoor Expo

Amherst County's first annual Outdoor Expo will be held from 10am – 5pm this Saturday, May 4th at Riveredge Park-150 Rocky Hill Rd., Madison Heights, Va., 24572. The expo will be highlighting different outdoor activities that can be found within the county, as well as a variety of clubs and businesses. The chart below illustrates the clubs and businesses that will be present during the expo. Several of the activities taking place during the expo will include the Nomad Mountain Guides providing rock climbing demos, as well as the Mountain Bike Club exhibiting several bikes for guests to demo and take on a community bike ride. The James River Association will have a bateau down at the Boar Ramp for guests to view and will also be providing tours of the James River. In addition, Tale Tellers Fly Shop will be doing fly rod casting and fly tying demos. These events will be made available to all age groups. We look forward to seeing you there!
