Amherst County Welcomes Back Ron Campbell

The Amherst County Information Technology Department is pleased to welcome Ron Campbell. After owning his own business, Ron returns to the IT Department as a Network Specialist.

He brings eighteen years of IT experience to the job, including three years of previous experience with the County. Ron will work with the IT department to maintain and fix problems with the County computers, printers, e-mails, and website as well as troubleshoot network related issues. "I am excited to use my experience and diverse skill set to fill this position and work with everyone in the County of Amherst again".

Ron studied Business Information Systems at Averett University where he earned his Bachelors of Science. He has worked in many areas of IT from entry level jobs to Database Administrator. He has lived in Nelson county for over 30 years and is pleased to be back working for Amherst County.
