Waste Collection Sites on U.S. 60 Now Closed.

Amherst County has closed the open container waste collections sites on U.S. 60 located at Long Mountain and Burley Hollow Road, the containers have been an eye sore for years. The county will begin the processes of removing the containers and putting up fences to keep the sites from being used for continued waste disposal.

The collection sites have been replaced with a new Dodds Store Convenience Center located at 4818 Lexington Turnpike. The county now has six convenience center location across the county. Locations and hours of operation for all convenience centers can be found on the County website:
