Regina Rice Joins Department of Recreation and Tourism as Special Events Coordinator

Amherst County Recreation and Tourism welcomes Regina Rice to their staff as Special Events Coordinator. In her new position, Mrs. Rice will be responsible for planning and organizing recreational events and programs, including the Senior Luncheons, the annual Easter Egg Hunt, and Halloween event. In addition, her job will include bringing new events to the County, building partnerships with other businesses and organizations, and overseeing event volunteers.

Mrs. Rice brings to the job 16 years of experience working for Amherst County. In 2006 she joined the staff as an Office Associate with the County Administrator's Office. Since then, Regina has served as Executive Assistant to one County Administrator and Legal Assistant to four County Attorneys. She has been a resident of Amherst County for over 40 years and has developed a deep love for the County and many close friendships over the years.
