

Amherst Art Society

Art lovers and artist can explore Amherst Art Society's studio resources, share ideas with other members, work on their own projects, sample a variety of mediums, and hang art for free in several local venues. Most members attend Art Tuesdays from 10:00 a.m. - 12 Noon but they can use the studio whenever the Monroe Community Center is open, located at 129 Francis Ave. just off of US 29 in Monroe. Amherst Art Society welcomes all skill levels and offers a place to discover your own creativity and appreciate art beyond the formal galleries. Display areas include the Madison Heights library, Monroe Community Center, the Amherst Public Library, DMV Select in the town of Amherst, the County Treasurer's Office, the County Administration Building and Rehab Associates in Amherst.

FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Find us on facebook @ Amherstvaartsociety

